

Are You A Mason?

For Joy See
the initiation ceremony in this 5 part GLOOM-DISPELLER
Paramount picture
Monday only at the Strand

SPECIAL MATINEE 2:30

for the Ladies

WHY IS A MASON?

NOTE:—IF YOU CAN'T LAUGH,
DON'T COME.

MIST MISTINGS

Mrs. Sam Alexander spent Friday with her mother, Mrs. Susan Ketel.

At Mason's Sunday, French Frozen Salad ice cream, in both brick and bulk.

Mr. and Mrs. Emery Bridgman, of Los Angeles, spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Barnett.

George Perkins, of Drain, is here on a visit to his sisters, Mrs. H. F. McCormick and Miss Leona Perkins.

On the steamer train Wednesday were twelve passengers for St. Helens, several of whom came to work in the Somarstrom yard at Columbia City.

Dave Davis and wife and Captain Watts and wife motored down from Portland Saturday and spent Sunday with relatives here.

After working hours Tuesday afternoon, twenty-five men of the Somarstrom crew went into the nearby woods and cut a 50-foot flag pole. It was peeled and set up and Old Glory was flying in less than an hour.

Mrs. M. B. Beaver, of Scappoose, was a St. Helens shopper Wednesday.

Harold P. Ross was in Castle Rock, Wash., Saturday and Sunday on a business mission.

Mrs. Thos. Kelley and Miss Blanche Dickey, of Neillville, Wis., spent Friday visiting Mrs. Susan Ketel.

Carl Christensen, superintendent of the shipbuilding plant, was a business visitor in Portland Wednesday.

E. E. Quick, A. J. Deming and H. W. White returned last night from a several days' fishing trip in the Nehalem country.

Mrs. A. J. Deming and Miss Eugenia Deming, after some days pleasantly spent at Seaside, returned to St. Helens Sunday night.

John Morgus, a prominent merchant of South Bend, Wash., visited his brother Henry Morgus Tuesday and Wednesday and left for Portland to take in Buyers' week.

The steamer Cello left out Monday night with a lumber and piling cargo of 1,000,000 feet, which goes to San Pedro. Quite a number of passengers were carried by the vessel.

Mrs. H. Eschebeck, of Scappoose, visited friends in St. Helens Wednesday.

Dave Coon, the Bachelor Flat stock raiser, spent Wednesday in the metropolis.

Frank Miles, of Portland, was in St. Helens Friday last, transacting business matters.

Mrs. H. J. Broughton left Tuesday for Cannon Beach, where she will visit friends for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Mann went up to Portland Saturday and, with some Portland friends, motored up the Columbia Highway Sunday.

Mrs. A. J. Peel is enjoying a visit from her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Williams, of London, Ontario. The Williams will leave tomorrow for Portland and a trip over the highway, returning to St. Helens next week.

Attention is called to the advertisement of the S. P. & S. R. Co., which appears elsewhere in this issue of the Mist. In order to accommodate people from St. Helens who wish to visit Seaside on Sunday, the company has arranged for their through beach train to stop at St. Helens.

Miss Virginia Huntington, a former California girl who has recently come to make her home in Portland, spent several days last week with Phyllis and Jessamine Brown, returning home Sunday evening with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Huntington, who spent Sunday at the J. S. Brown home.

Miss Harriet Ross, accompanied by Miss Carrie Elbertson, arrived in St. Helens Saturday, having come from San Francisco on the steamer Great Northern. Miss Elbertson left for her Portland home Sunday and Miss Harriet Ross will remain in St. Helens and accompany her father to the Ross home in Redlands, Cal.

After spending several weeks with relatives and friends in San Francisco and Santa Cruz, Cal., Mrs. M. Rosenthal, Miss Ella Rosenthal and Mrs. N. Rieen and children, Helen and Edgar, returned to St. Helens Sunday afternoon. They were passengers on the steamer Great Northern and report a fine sea voyage.

Pete Levris, a Greek employed by the Columbia County Lumber Company, received painful injuries last Wednesday when a large stick of timber struck him on the hip, shattering the bone and bruising him considerably. The injured man was given first aid by Dr. Wade and later sent to a Portland hospital.

Miss Effie Perkins is expected to arrive in St. Helens tonight and will visit her sister, Mrs. H. F. McCormick. Miss Effie is a trained nurse and is connected with the Lane hospital in San Francisco. Some time ago she joined the Stanford unit of the Red Cross nurses, and in all probability she will see service in France, as a call from headquarters is expected.

Trenholm and Milton creeks in the vicinity of the city's reservoir are becoming very popular for camping and picnic places. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Blakesley camped there Saturday and Sunday, as did Dr. H. R. Cliff and family of Portland, and several other parties from Portland and elsewhere. The Blakesley and Deming families got an early start Thursday morning and spent the day near Trenholm and incidentally had a good dinner awaiting Deming and Quick when those tired fishermen returned from Nehalem.

James Muckle, of Portland, was circulating among St. Helens friends Thursday.

A. C. Seifert, a well known resident of Mayger, was transacting business in St. Helens Thursday.

The Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church plans on having a home talent play on Friday evening, the 24th inst. More particulars will be given in the next issue of the Mist.

W. J. Muckle will have his new garage ready to serve the public tomorrow or Monday. He will handle a full line of auto accessories, oils, gasoline, etc., and will also have cars for hire.

Coming in quest of lumber cargoes, the steamers Klamath and Multnomah arrived Thursday evening. The Klamath will take a full load of ties for delivery at San Pedro and the Multnomah a lumber cargo for the same destination.

John Arvidson and wife, who have been enjoying a ten days vacation in San Francisco, returned to St. Helens via the Great Northern Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Arvidson states that although the vessel carried several hundred passengers the service was par-excellence, and both he and his wife enjoyed the trip immensely.

Olaf Forsberg, wife and three children arrived Friday morning from their former home near Knappton, Wash. Several years ago Mr. Forsberg bought a tract of land near Yankton and he will settle on this and become one of Columbia county's farmers. He states that several other families who live in the community from which he came have bought Yankton lands and will locate there.

CHURCH NOTICES

Congregational Church

10:00 a. m., Church school.
11:00 a. m., morning worship.
7 p. m., Christian Endeavor.
There will be no services in this church in the evening, as we will unite with the Methodists at their church.

Methodist Episcopal Church

"The Friendly Church," Albert S. Hisey, pastor.

Sunday school, 10 a. m.
Morning worship, 11 a. m.
Evening service, 8 o'clock.
Epworth League, 7 p. m.
Midweek meeting, Wednesday at 8 p. m.

The subject of the morning sermon will be "What We Owe the World." Rev. Taylor, pastor of the Congregational church, will preach the sermon and conduct the evening service.

The young people of the community are cordially invited to attend the Epworth League service, which they will find to be most interesting and profitable.

ALL JOY

NO GLOOM

FATTY

ARBUCKLE

SUNDAY

THE STRAND

Please Take Notice

BIG MONEY-SAVING
SPECIAL ON SCHOOL SUPPLIES

This is the Story

Last year, when we realized that the price of paper was going out of sight, we took a gambler's chance and bought an immense quantity of SCHOOL SUPPLIES, and now we have them in stock. WE INTEND THAT OUR CUSTOMERS SHALL REAP THE BENEFIT, for we are going to run a 30-Days Special Sale on School Supplies. Tablets of all kinds, Composition Books, Ink, Scratch Pads, Pencils, Etc.

Watch for the date and prices next week in our special advertisement.

Don't buy until you see our prices.

The prettiest line of LADIES' DRESS GOODS that has ever been in St. Helens. We have Serges, Wool Poplins, Silk Poplin, Taffeta Silks, Challies, Silk Pongee and Silk Crepe de Chine in a big range of patterns cut in short lengths so that everybody in town won't have a dress alike.

Come in and give them the once over.

Also Just Arrived

Taber's Variety Store
St. Helens

Cool Caress of Clatsop Beach Air Now Most Inviting SEASIDE GEARHART

The sandy esplanade is better than ever before. Beach life at its gayest. The place for the family and the kiddies. Inexpensive Camp Sites, Tents, Cottages and reasonably-priced boarding houses and hotels.

Clatsop Beach Resorts most convenient for Week-End vacationists. Leave 8:14 A. M. and 7:24 P. M.

WEEK-END
TRIPS $3

SEASON
LIMIT $4

For the convenience of St. Helens people the Portland Limited, leaving Seaside at 6:30 P. M., will stop at St. Helens Sundays only, to discharge passengers from beach points.

J. O. DIVENS, Agent,
St. Helens, Ore.

Austin's

Some Special Bargains

Children's Gingham Dresses, regular 75c and $1 values, at59c

Ladies' Fast Black Cotton Hose, regular 25c value, at18c

Sport Skirtings

In new Plaids, Stripes and Plain Goods.
Will you call and inspect them?

HOOVER

Enjoins Every One to Economize.
LET NOTHING SPOIL

USE ICE

This means

Economy and Comfort

We also have Poultry and Fish, and our fine Spring Chickens are great eating.

S. R. SONNELAND

PHONE 42 or B72

"Doc" RAE'S BIG DANCE

CITY HALL, ST. HELENS
SATURDAY, AUGUST 11

With a New Orchestra from Portland

BEST OF FLOOR MANAGEMENT

Admission $1.00